Access your student loan information through NSLDS

NSLDS, the National Student Loan Data System, is the U.S. Department of Education’s (Department’s) central database for student aid. NSLDS integrates data from schools, guaranty agencies, the Direct Loan Program and other Department programs so students and parents can manage their federal student loans and grants online.

What will you find at NSLDS?
- Lender name(s) and contact information
- Loan details
  - Account number(s)
  - Current balance(s)
  - Loan status
  - Loan type
  - Loan periods
  - Interest rate
  - Deferment, forbearance and repayment periods
- School name and contact information
- Guarantor name and contact information
- Other federal aid programs

Don’t have your pin?
You can apply for one or reset it by going to www.pin.ed.gov.

If you do not already have a Federal Student Aid PIN:
- Select “Apply for a PIN” on the left side.
- Enter your personal information.
- Click “Submit Request.”

If you previously had a PIN:
- Select “Reestablish My PIN” or “Request a Duplicate PIN” on the left side.
- Enter your Social Security number.
- Enter the first two letters of your last name.
- Enter your date of birth.
- Click “Submit Request.”

Correcting NSLDS
If you disagree with any of the information reported to NSLDS, please contact the appropriate institution listed on the detail pages on the site to update your data.

Three easy steps to access NSLDS

STEP 1
Go to www.nslds.ed.gov and click on “Financial Aid Review.”

You will need the Federal Student Aid PIN, or personal identification number, that was provided by the Department when you took out your loans. If you do not have a PIN, refer to the “Don’t have your PIN?” section after Step 3.

STEP 2
- Read and accept the privacy statements.
- Enter your Social Security number.
- Enter the first two letters of your last name.
- Enter your date of birth.
- Enter your PIN.

Click “Submit.”
