ARTICLE I  PREAMBLE

SECTION 1  ESTABLISHMENT

We, the students of Folsom Lake College, recognizing the need for self-governance and student representation, do hereby establish this constitution and assume the powers and responsibilities of self-government as authorized by the Board of Trustees of the Los Rios Community College District and the California Education Code.

The organization shall be known as the Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization (ASO) which includes the Folsom Lake College Student Senate, the Folsom Lake College Club and Events Board and the Folsom Lake College Joint Budget Committee.

SECTION 2  MISSION

It is the mission of the Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization to improve the quality of life for students by effecting change in regard to policy and campus development and by overseeing student activities.

This mission will be achieved by:

A. Providing the students with a voice and opportunities to participate in the College and District participatory governance processes;

B. Reflecting and representing the interests of the students of Folsom Lake College and its educational centers at the college, district, regional, state and national levels as granted by Assembly Bill 1725;

C. Promoting civic responsibility with an emphasis on advocacy and sustainability;

D. Striving to maintain the quality of the educational, cultural and social areas of the college community;

E. Organizing and coordinating sustainable co-curricular and extra-curricular activities that reflect the diversity of the campus community and foster cultural awareness and acceptance;
F. Cooperating effectively with the faculty and administration in the areas common to all as a college community;

G. Providing a mechanism for the appropriate allocation of ASO resources;

H. Establishing procedures to realize annual goals.

ARTICLE II IDENTIFICATION

SECTION 1 NAME

The name of the student association established by this constitution shall be the Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization.

SECTION 2 MASCOT

The mascot of the FLC ASO shall be the Falcons.

SECTION 3 COLORS

The colors of the FLC ASO shall be black and teal.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP AND COMPONENTS

SECTION 1 MEMBERSHIP

All enrolled students at Folsom Lake College shall be members of the Student Body Association (SBA) and are encouraged to attend general Associated Student Organization meetings.

SECTION 2 COMPONENTS

The Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization shall consist of the following three components:

A. The Folsom Lake College Student Senate (SS)

B. The Folsom Lake College Clubs and Events Board (CAEB)

C. The Folsom Lake College Joint Budget Committee (JBC)

ARTICLE IV PURPOSE

SECTION 1 GENERAL PURPOSE

The purpose of the Associated Student Organization is to ensure student representation in the participatory governance process of the College and the District and to promote the intellectual and social life of students through authorized clubs and college activities. The Associated Student Organization further provides a conduit of information for communicating with, securing the input, representing views and reporting back to the students.
SECTION 2  PARTICIPATORY GOVERNANCE/REPRESENTATION

Through the Student Senate, the Student Body Association participates in the College’s participatory governance process to formulate policy and procedures that have or will have a significant effect on students. The Student Senate also serves as the means through which students may be nominated to participate on College and/or District committees, task forces or other governance groups. The Student Senate is also charged with the responsibility to recommend expenditures of the College’s Student Representation fees for authorized activities. The Student Senate is the only entity empowered to take positions on legislative issues within its purview under Los Rios Community College District Policies and Regulations.

SECTION 3  ACTIVITIES

Through the Clubs and Events Board, the Student Body Association promotes the intellectual and social life of students at the College through authorized club activities and promotes the intellectual, artistic, cultural and social life of students by organizing college-wide events.

SECTION 4  FUNDING

The Student Senate and the Clubs and Events Board shall receive an annual allocation for general expenses determined by a formula set by the College’s Joint Budget Committee in consultation with the Student Life Coordinator. The Student Senate and the Clubs and Events Board may petition the Joint Budget Committee for additional funds.

The Student Senate shall also receive an annual allocation from the College’s student representation fee. (Ed Code. § 70060.5.)

ARTICLE V  RECOGNITION OF AUTHORITY

SECTION 1  AUTHORITY

The Associated Student Organization exists solely by virtue of the authorization of the Los Rios Community College District board of Trustees, LRCCD Policy 2311 and California Education Code section 76060. The Associated Student Organization recognizes that by virtue of possessing the power to create the Associated Student Organization, the Board of Trustees also retains the power of oversight over the Associated Student Organization and the power to revoke this authority and to dissolve the Associated Student Organization.

ARTICLE VI  STUDENT SENATE (SS)

SECTION 1  MEMBERSHIP

Those signatures shall be verified by College officials and only those signatures of currently enrolled students shall count towards the required number of signatures.

SECTION 3 RECALL ELECTION
A recall election shall be set within fourteen (14) days after the requirements to enact the recall have been fulfilled. A vote of not less than three-quarters (3/4) of the students who vote in the recall election is required to remove an officer or member from office.

ARTICLE XIII
AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1

This Constitution may be amended by concurrent resolutions passed by two thirds (2/3) of the members of the Senate and two thirds (2/3) of the members of the Clubs and Events Board and ratified by the students in an election. The Constitution may also be amended by a petition signed by the students and ratified by the students in a student election.

SECTION 2

Any amendment requires the ratification of 2/3 of the students voting in the election on the date that the resolution was approved or the valid petition was presented.

SECTION 3

Any amendment of this constitution is subject to the review and approval of the Los Rios Community College District Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE XIV
BYLAWS

SECTION 1
ENACTING BYLAWS

Each component of the Associated Student Organization shall enact bylaws which govern their day to day operation. Those Bylaws are subject to the approval of the advisor and appropriate administrators.

SECTION 2
AMENDMENT

Bylaws may be adopted or amended by a 2/3 vote of the members of the component that seeks to enact them.

ARTICLE XV
LIMITATIONS OF POWERS

SECTION 1
ADVISORS, EDUCATORS, RESOURCES

The Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization, and each component thereof, shall have a faculty advisor appointed by the College. Every act or omission of the Associated Student Organization, and any component thereof, shall be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Student Life, the faculty advisor, the Vice President of Student Development and Enrollment Management and the President of the College. Advisors may work with elected and appointed student representatives to address performance related concerns as part of the learning experience that is student participatory governance. Ultimate review and approval of the actions and omissions of the Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization and each of its components remains with the Los Rios Community College District Board of Trustees. Efforts should be made available to incoming student representatives that define the role and scope of the advisor, raises awareness of their educational function, and informs them of the resources that they have to offer student representatives as it relates to participatory governance, legislative advocacy, and campus activities. If an advisor should find that a decision or action is beyond the defined purview of the elected student officer or member, they should have the ability to take corrective action in consultation with the appropriate campus officials.

SECTION 2    SUPREMACY CLAUSE

The Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization and its components are bound by the Policies and Regulations of the Los Rios Community College District, and all applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

SECTION 3    RESERVATION OF POWERS

All powers not explicitly granted to the Folsom Lake College Associated Student Organization remain with the Los Rios Community College District Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE XVI    ENABLING AND RATIFICATION

SECTION 1    ENABLING

This Constitution becomes effective when ratified by 2/3 of the students voting in a generally scheduled election at Folsom Lake College.

SECTION 2    PROCEDURES

The date of ratification of this Constitution and any subsequent amendment must be listed as an appendix to this constitution.

SECTION 3    SUPERCEDED CONSTITUTIONS

Upon ratification of this Constitution, followed by spring elections to fill the offices as described within this document, all prior student constitutions and bylaws of Folsom Lake College are null and void and of no force or effect.
